Processional Hymn 487

Rise, crowned with light, imperial Salem, rise!
Exalt thy towering head and lift thine eyes!
See heaven its sparkling portals wide display,
And break upon thee in a flood of day,

See a long race thy spacious courts adorn;
See future sons and daughters yet unborn,
In crowding ranks on every side arise,
Demanding life, impatient for the skies.

See barbarous nations at thy gates attend,
Walk in thy light, and in thy temple bend:
See thy bright altars thronged with prostrate kings,
While every land its joyous tribute brings.

The seas shall waste, the skies to smoke decay,
Rocks fall to dust, and mountaing melt away;
But fixed His Word, His saving power remains
Thy realm shall last, thy own Messiah reigns.

The Bishop is to be received at the entrance of the Church by the Church-wardens and Vestrymen. The Bishop and the Clergy who are present shall then go up the aisle of the church, repeating the Twenty-fourth Psalm alternately, the Bishop one verse and the Clergy another.

Psalm 24—Domini est terra.

THE earth is the Lord's and all that therein is; the compass of the world and they that dwell therein.

2. For he had founded it upon the seas, and prepared it upon the floods.

3. Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? or who shall rise up in his holy place.

4. Even he that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; and that hath not lift up his mind unto vanity, nor sworn to deceive his neighbor.

5. He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his Salvation.

6. This is the generation of them that seek him; even of them that seek thy face, O Jacob.

7. Lift up your heads, O ye gates: and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

8. Who is this King of glory? It is the Lord strong and mighty, even the Lord mighty in battle.

9. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

10 Who is this King of glory? Even the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

Answer. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

The Bishop sitting in his chair, the request for Consecration will be read by Mr. Lewis H. Redner, and then standing, up and turning to the Congregation, the Bishop shall say,

DEARLY beloved in the Lord: forasmuch as devout and holy men, as well under the Law as under the Gospel, moved either by the express command of God, or by the secret inspiration of the blessed Spirit, and acting agreeably to their own reason and sense of the natural decency of things, have erected houses for the public worship of God, and seperated them from all unhallowed, worldly and common uses, in order to fill men's minds with greater reverence for his glorious Majesty, and affect their hearts with more devotion and humility in his service; which pious works have been approved of and graciously accepted by our heavenly Father: Let us not doubt but that he will also favourably approve our godly purpose of setting apart this place in solemn manner, for the performance of the several offices of religious worship, and let us faithfully and devoutly beg his blessing on this our undertaking.

Then the Bishop, kneeling, shall say the following Prayer,

OETERNAL God, mighty in power, and of majesty incomprehensible, whom the heaven of heavens cannot contain, much less the walls of temples made with hands; and who yet has been graciously pleased to promise thy especial presence wherever two or three of thy faithful servants shall assemble in thy Name, to offer up their praises and supplications unto thee; Vouchsafe, O Lord to be present with us, who are here gathered together with all humility and readiness of heart, to consecrate this place to the honour of thy great Name; separating it henceforth from all unhallowed, ordinary and common uses; and dedicating it to thy service, for reading thy holy Word, for celebrating thy holy Sacraments, for offering to thy glorious Majesty the sacrifices of prayer and thanksgiving, for blessing thy people in thy Name, and for the performance of all other holy offices: accept, O Lord, this service at our hands, and bless it with such success as may tend most to thy glory, and the furtherance of our happiness both temporal and spiritual; through Jesus Christ our blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

After this the Bishop shall stand up, and turning his face towards the Congregation, shall say,

REGARD, O Lord, the supplications of thy servants, and grant that whosoever shall be dedicated to thee in this house by Baptism, may be sanctified by the Holy Ghost, delivered from thy wrath and eternal death, and received as a living member of Christ's Church, and may ever remain in the number of thy faithful children. Amen.

Grant, O Lord, that they who at this place shall in their own persons renew the promises and vows of their Baptism, and be Confirmed by the Bishap, may receive such a measure of thy Holy Spirit, that they may be enabled faithfully to fulfil the same, and grow in grace unto their lives' end. Amen.

Grant, O Lord, that whosoever shall receive in this place the blessed Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ may come to that holy ordinance with faith, charity, and true repentance; and being filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction, may, to their great and endless comfort, obtain remission of their sins, and all other benefits of his passion. Amen.

Grant, O Lord, that by thy holy Word which shall be read and preached in this place, and by thy Holy Spirit grafting it inwardly in the heart, the hearers thereof may both perceive and know what things they ought to do, and may have power and strength to fulfil the same. Amen.

Grant, O Lord, that whosoever shall be joined together in this place in the holy estate of Matrimony, may faithfully perform and keep the vow and covenant between them made, and may remain in perfect love together unto their lives' end. Amen.

Grant, we beseech thee, blessed Lord, that whosoever shall draw near to thee in this place, to give thee thanks for the benefits which they have received at thy hands, to set forth thy most worthy praise, to confess their sins unto thee, and to ask such things as are requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul, may do it with such steadiness of faith, and with such seriousness, affection and devotion of mind, that thou mayest accept their bounden duty and service, and vouchsafe to give whatever in thy infinite wisdom thou shalt see to be most expedient for them: All which we beg for Jesus Christ's sake, our most blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

Then, the Bishop sitting in his chair the Sentence of Consecration is to be read by some person appointed by him, and laid by the Bishop upon the Holy Table; after which the Bishop shall say,

The Sentence of Consecration will be read by the Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins, S.T.D.

BLESSED be thy name, O Lord, that it hath pleased thee to put it into the hearts of thy servants to appropriate and devote this house to thy honour and worship: and grant that all who shall enjoy the benefit of this pious work, may show forth their thankfulness, by making a right use of it, to the glory of thy blessed Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Morning Prayer will then be said.

Proper Psalms

Psalm 84—Quam dilecta!

O HOW amiable | are thy | dwellings: thou | Lord·— | of— | hosts!
2. My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts | of the | Lord: my heart and my flesh rejoice | in the | living | God.
3. Yea, the sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest where she may | lay her | young: even thy altars O Lord of hosts, my | King ·— | and my | God.
4. Blessed are they that dwell | in thy | house: they will be | alway | praising | thee.
5. Blessed is the man whose strength | is in | thee: in whose | heart·— | are thy | ways.
6. Who going through the vale of misery use it | for a | well: and the | pools are | filled· with | water
7. They will go from | strength to | strength: and unto the God of gods appeareth every | one of | them in | Sion.
8. O Lord God of hosts | hear my | prayer: hearken | O·— | God of | Jacob.
9. Behold O God | our de | fender: and look upon the | face of | thine A | nointed.
10. For one day | in thy | courts: is | better | than a | thousand.
11. I had rather be a door-keeper in the house | of my | God: than to dwell in the tents | of un | godli | ness.
12. For the Lord God is a light | and de | fence: the Lord will give grace and worship, and no good thing shall he withhold from them that | live a | godly | life.
13. O Lord | God of | hosts: blessed is the man that | putteth his | trust in | thee.

Glory be to the Father | and · to the Son: and | to the | Holy | Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and | ever | shall be: world without | end·— | A·— | men.

Psalm 122. Laetatus sum

I WAS glad when they said | unto | me: We will go into the | house·— | of the Lord.
2. Our feet shall stand | in thy | gates: O | —· Je | rusa | lem.
3. Jerusalem is built | as a | city: that is at | unity | in it | self.
4. For thither the tribes go up, even the tribes | of the | Lord: to testify unto Israel, to give thanks unto the | Name · —· | of the | Lord.
5. For there is the | seat of | judgment: even the seat | of the | house of | David.
6. O pray for the peace of Je | rusa | lem: they shall | prosper: that | love · — | thee.
7. Peace be with | in thy | walls: and plen | teousness with | in thy | pala | ces.
8. For my brethren and com | panions' | sakes: I will wish | thee pros | peri | ty.
9. Yea, because of the house of the | Lord our | God: I will | seek to | do thee | good.

Psalm 132. Memento Domine

LORD re | member | David: and | all ·— | his · — | trouble:
2. How he sware | unto · the Lord: and vowed a vow unto the Al | mighty | God of Jacob;
3. I will not come within the *tab*ernacle | of mine | house: nor | climb up | into · my | bed;
4. I will not suffer mine eyes to sleep, nor mine | eye-lids · to | slumber: neither the temples of my head to | take · —any | rest;
5. Until I find out a place for the temple | of the | Lord: an habitation for the | mighty | God of | Jacob.
6. Lo we heard of the same at | Ephra—ta: and | found it | in the wood
7. We will go into his | taber | nacle: and fall low on our | knees be | fore his | footstool.
8. Arise O Lord into thy | resting | place: thou and the | ark ·— | of thy | strength.
9. Let thy priests be clothed with | righteous | ness: and let thy saints | sing with | joyful | ness.
10. For thy servant | David's | sake: turn not away the | presence · of | thine A | nointed.
11. The Lord hath made a faithful oath | unto | David: and he | shall not | shrink from | it.
12. Of the fruit | of thy | body; shall I | set up | on thy | seat.
13. If thy children will keep my covenant, and my testimonies that I shall | learn ·— | them: their children also shall sit upon thy | seat for | ever | more.
14. For the Lord hath chosen Sion to be a habi*tation* | for him | self: he hath | longed | for ·— | her
15. This shall be my | rest for ever: here will I dwell, for I | have a de | light there | in.
16. I will bless her | victuals · with | increase: and will satis | fy her | poor with | bread.
17 I will deck her | priests with | health: and her saints | shall re | joice and | sing.
18. There shall I make the horn of | David · to | flourish: I have ordained a | lantern · for | mine A—nointed.
19. As for his enemies, I shall clothe | them with | shame: but upon himself | shall his | crown · — | flourish.

PSALM 100

BE ye joyful in the Lord, all ye lands; serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song.

2. Be ye sure that the Lord he is God; it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

3. O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise; be thankful unto him, and speak good of his Name.

4. For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

Creed, Versicles and Collects

Hymn 481

From every stormy wind that blows,
From every swelling tide of woes,
There is a calm, a sure retreat,
'Tis found beneath the mercy-seat.

There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads,
A place than all beside more sweet;
It is the blood-stained mercy-seat.

There is a spot where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend;
Tho' sundered far, by faith they meet
Around one common mercy-seat.

There, there, on eagles' wings we soar,
And time and sense seem all no more
And heaven comes down, our souls to greet,
And glory crowns the mercy-seat.

Holy Communion

THE COLLECT

O MOST Glorious Lord, we acknowledge that we are not worthy to offer unto thee anything belonging unto us; yet we beseech thee, in thy great goodness, graciously to accept the Dedication of this place to thy service, and to prosper this our undertaking; receive the prayers and intercessions of all those thy servants who shall call upon thee in this house; and give them grace to prepare their hearts to serve thee with reverence and godly fear; affect them with an awful apprehension of thy Divine Majesty, and a deep sense of their own unworthiness; that so approaching thy sanctuary with lowliness, and devotion, and coming before thee with clean thoughts and pure hearts, with bodies undefiled, and minds sanctified, they may always perform a service acceptable to thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE EPISTLE II Cor. vi., 14.

BE ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers; for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? and what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? and what agreement hath the temple of God with idols; For ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

THE GOSPEL. St. John ii., 13.

AND the Jews' Passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem, and found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: and when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables; and said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house a house of merchandise. And his disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

Hymn 485

I love Thy kingdom, Lord,
The house of Thine abode,
The Church our blest Redeemer saved
With His own precious blood

For her my tears shall fall;
For her my prayers ascend;
To her my cares and toils be given,
Till toils and cares shall end.

Beyond my highest joy
I prize her heavenly ways,
Her sweet communion, solemn vows
Her hymns of love and praise.

Jesus, Thou friend divine,
Our Saviour and our King,
Thy hand from every snare and foe
Shall great deliverance bring.

Sure as thy truth shall last,
To Sion shall be given
The brightest glories earth can yield
And brighter bliss of heaven.

The RIGHT REV. WILLIAM N. MCVICKAR, D. D., Bishop of Rhode Island, will preach the Consecration Sermon.

Offering

The Offering at this Service will be for the work of the Chapel of the Prince of Peace.

Communion Hymn, 225

Bread of the world, in mercy broken
Wine of the soul, in mercy shed,
By whom the words of life were spoken,
And in whose death our sins are dead

Look on the heart by sorrow broken,
Look on the tears by sinners shed;
And be Thy feast to us the token
That by Thy grace our souls are fed.

Recessional Hymn, 483

Christ is made the sure foundation,
Christ the head and corner-stone,
Chosen of the Lord, and precious,
Binding all the Church in one;
Holy Sion's help forever,
And her confidence alone.

All that dedicated city,
Dearly loved of God on high,
In exultant jubilation
Pours perpetual melody;
God the One in Three adoring
In glad hyms eternally.

To this temple, where we call Thee,
Come, O Lord of Hosts to-day;
With Thy wonted loving-kindness,
Hear Thy servants as they pray:
And Thy fullest benediction
Shed within its walls alway.

Here vouchsafe to all Thy servants
What they ask of Thee to gain.
What they gain from Thee, forever
With the blessed to retain,
And hereafter in Thy glory
Evermore with Thee to reign.
